Beauty Professional Makeup Artistry instructor, DANIELLE BATTAGLIA, began her career in makeup artistry with her passion for cosplay. In 2019, Danielle was hired by Universal Orlando Makeup Department where she continues to do makeup for events like Halloween Horror Nights and Grinchmas. In 2020, she decided to pursue formal training in makeup and attended VAMP's Modern Effects Makeup Artistry and Beauty Professional Makeup Artistry programs. In her 5 years since graduating, Danielle has hit the ground running, working on everything from films, television shows, commercials, music videos, themed and live entertainment, and as an artist for Blue Whale Studios. While she now enjoys a career in the field of makeup artistry, working as a key artist and department head for multiple film productions, she still thoroughly enjoys working on personal projects for conventions and fabricating full character and creature looks in her free time.
